

Lesson 2 - Vocabulary

brazen: Bold, self-assurance astride: With a leg on each side exiles: Enforced removal from one's native country or self-imposed absence from one's country beacon: A source of guidance or inspiration ancient: Of great age; very old pomp: 2. Vain or ostentatious display yearning: A persistent, often wistful or melancholy desire; a longing wretched: In a deplorable state of distress or misfortune; miserable teeming: To be full of things; abound or swarm tempest-tossed: Buffeted about, as by adversities